

HAMPTON PRODUCTS INTERNET PRIVACY POLICY

Hampton Products International Corporation (Hampton) maintains many websites under various brands for varying purposes. If you have been directed to this privacy policy, you have most likely been directed here by one of our websites. Please be assured that we use our best effort to protect the privacy of visitors to all of our web-based properties. The primary purpose of every web property we own is to provide information concerning products and services to the public. Generally, visitors to our websites can access information without revealing any personal information, with the following two exceptions:

Ecommerce

If you are visiting an e-commerce site, you may be asked for enough information to process and fulfill your order, this will include, but may not be limited to, first and last name, address, phone number and email address. We only use 3rd party banking services to process credit card payments. No credit card information is passed through, or stored on, any Hampton-owned electronic system. We only store enough information on our systems to fill and ship your order. We do not sell your information.

Product Support

If you are visiting one of our consumer care support sites, we will offer you the opportunity to provide enough information so that we can replace your defective product or offer you technical support. This will include, but may not be limited to, first and last name, address, phone number, email address, and information about the item that requires support. We may also ask you to describe your technical or warranty concern. We only store enough information to support your request. We do not sell your information.

Sharing of Your Personal Information

We may share your personal information within the Hampton organization, this may include our subsidiaries, our licensees and our affiliates. Any use of this information within the Hampton organization will comply with this policy. We reserve the right to use or disclose any information as needed to satisfy any law, regulation or legal request, to protect the integrity of the website, to fulfill your requests, or to cooperate in any law enforcement investigation or an investigation on a matter of public safety.

Access

Website users have the option to request that we not use information previously provided, correct information previously provided, or remove information previously provided. Those that would like to correct or suppress information that they have provided should forward such inquiries to the address listed below.

Cookies

We may collect anonymous information concerning our website visitors through the use of cookies. "Cookies" are small temporary files that websites place on visitors' computers to improve their website experience. None of the information contained in the cookies we use can identify an individual person. We present our website visitors from countries under GDPR regulation with the option to turn off cookies before visiting our websites.

Links to Other Sites

Our websites may contain links to other sites which may be owned and maintained by other parties who are not affiliated with Hampton. We assume no responsibility for the content or the privacy policies or practices on those websites. We encourage all users to read the privacy statements of those sites as their privacy practices may differ from ours.

Change to Hampton Products Privacy Policy

This privacy policy is effective as of August 01, 2011 and was updated last in 2018. From time to time, it may be necessary for us to update this policy. If the policy is changed, we will post the revised version here.

How to Contact Hampton Products

If you have any questions about our privacy policy, please contact us at:

Hampton Products International Corp
Attn: Information Technology Manager
50 Icon, Foothill Ranch, CA 92610-3000